ISRS CONGRESSES RESCHEDULED—PLEASE MARK YOUR CALENDARS!

With the goal of ensuring safety and reducing uncertainty, the ISRS has rescheduled the next two biennial international congresses.

The 15th meeting will be held April 3-7, 2022 in Brisbane, Australia (see inside back cover). Congress Chairman Matthew Foote has already assembled an outstanding multidisciplinary scientific program committee. In accordance with the typical frequency of ISRS Congresses, the 16th meeting will be held two years later, May 26-30, 2024 in Milan, Italy.

IRRF AND ISRS PARTNER ON IRRF 2020 CONFERENCE

ISRS joined forces with the International Radiosurgery Research Foundation (IRRF) to hold the 4th IRRF biennial meeting focused on cranial radiosurgery. Originally scheduled as an in-person meeting on Long Island, the conference was held via live stream June 19-20, 2020. ISRS Board Members Jason Sheehan and John Suh served on the Planning Committee and several members of the ISRS Board were invited speakers including President Laura Fariselli who presented the ongoing initiatives of the Society. The lectures are available for viewing on the ISRS website. The ISRS commends the IRRF for an outstanding scientific event and looks forward to continued collaboration.

ISRS CLINICAL PRACTICE GUIDELINE PUBLISHED

One of the main objectives of the ISRS is to elucidate best practices and provide guidance for the safe and effective practice of radiosurgery. More guidelines have been published and is available via open access:
